ANOTHER DEATH ON RAILWAY

A 48-YEAR-OLD woman has become the 10th person to lose their life on the rail line through Harlow in less than two years.

The woman, whose name has not yet been released but who is believed to be from Epping, was struck by a London-bound express train after appearing to jump on to the tracks at Harlow Mill station on Monday afternoon.

The train was not scheduled to stop and was travelling at around 80mph as it entered the station.

British Transport Police have confirmed they are not treating the woman's death as suspicious.

The incident, at 4.20pm, caused chaos for commuters with the line remaining closed for almost two hours. Services were resumed at 6.10pm.

A BTP spokesman said that a file was being prepared for the coroner.

Ten people have now died on the town's rail network since February 2008 although the latest death is the first for more than a year. The last victim was killed at Harlow Mill in September 2008.

Inquests into the deaths of five of the previous victims returned two verdicts of suicide, two of accidental death and one open verdict.

The tragedies prompted Harlow MP Bill Rammell to hold talks with Network Rail and British Transport Police to explore ways of preventing further fatalities. This week he told

HEAVY snowfall caused chaos for pedestrians and commuters in Harlow yesterday (Wednesday).

As much as six inches (15cm) of snow fell in parts of the town, forcing most schools to close for the day and some peak-time rail services to be cancelled.

Essex County Council gritters concentrated on the major routes running through the town, leaving many side roads and residential

Girl (17) 'raped' in town centre alley

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

POLICE have launched a rape investigation after a teenage girl was sexually assaulted in Harlow town centre just yards from a nightclub where New Year's Eve revellers were celebrating the start of the new decade.

Detectives are investigating reports that the 17-year-old, who they have described as a "local girl", was subjected to a serious sexual assault in an alleyway leading off Post Office Walk, close to The Clubhouse.

The alleged incident occurred between 2am and 2.30am on New Year's Day (Friday).

This week they have issued a description of a suspect they want to interview in connection with the incident.

He is white, aged 19-20, about 6ft tall with brown hair parted in the middle. He was wearing a light blue long sleeved shirt, white T-shirt and black jeans or trousers and spoke with an Irish accent.

Police have also released a CCTV image of three young men who they believe may have vital information relating to the enquiry.

A spokeswoman for Essex Police said: "The image was captured on CCTV at The Clubhouse nightclub in Harlow town centre.

"The young men, or anyone who can identify them, are asked to contact police as soon as possible."

Police have not confirmed if either the alleged victim or the man were attending the over-18s nightclub's New Year's Eve celebration which had an all-ticketed 'after party' running until 6am.

The nightclub's management were unavailable for comment as the Star went to press yesterday (Wednesday).

Anyone with information should contact police at Harlow on 0300 333 4444 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

APPEAL: The CCTV image issued by police of three men who they think may have information about the assault in the early hours of Friday areas virtually impassable. Kier Harlow workmen battled the blizzards to clear paths and walkways in the town centre.

Drivers were advised to stay at home and not make any unnecessary journeys, with police and ambulance services urging those motorists who chose to venture out to take extra care on the roads.

Even those hoping to escape the cold snap and head for sunnier climes on holiday were frustrated as Stansted Airport was forced to close its runway for snow clearing and budget airline Easyjet cancelled scores of flights.

With more heavy snow forecast for the rest of the week, county councillor Norman Hume, cabinet member for highways and transportation, urged drivers to stick to main roads if they need to use their cars.

"Our dedicated winter service is continuing to work round the clock to cope with the icy conditions," he said. "In order to keep the county moving we need to focus our efforts on the primary network and I would urge residents to only travel if it is absolutely necessary."

Meanwhile, police in Harlow have issued a warning to youths who damage property by throwing snowballs.

Inspector Andy Bray said: "Can I ask parents to remind their children not to throw snowballs at people's property or passing cars."

"In the past we have had reports of criminal damage caused by snowballs. This could result in the child being arrested and a suitable parent or guardian being called into the police station."

MEMORIES of the former Burnt Mill rail station have been steaming their way to the Nostalgia desk since we printed a picture of it a couple of weeks ago.

The former station was built in the 1840s, serving the village of Burnt Mill in the years before the birth of the new town.

This week we are able to publish a grainy newspaper photo which appeared in the 'Memory Corner' feature of the Harlow Gazette.

The picture was taken in 1949 by rail enthusiast John Forster who lived in Park Mead at the time of publication. He wanted to know the name of the signalman standing at the door of the signal box.

We have no way of checking whether he was successful in his quest, but there may be a Star reader who knows.

Meanwhile, former Harlow College librarian Moira Jones, who now helps look after the Gibbard Library, has also written in with her memories of Burnt Mill station.

"I had just moved to Harlow but I was working at West Ham library," she said.

"All of the trains were steam-powered and there was a lovely little coal fire in the waiting room. The station won awards for its planting.

"When they took down the station to be replaced by the new Harlow Town station we found the old sign which was being thrown away. We took it and it is now in The Museum of Harlow."

Our original picture, which was supplied by Ron Bill, also delighted reader Jill Harman.

"I remember the scene very well as it was where I spent my childhood," she said. "I lived at Netteswell Cross all through those years and when I saw that picture it brought back many happy memories for me.

"The railway crossing was easy access with

The day they found a sign of the times

just manned gates. I also remember Jack Riley's grocery stores which was also the post office. There were other small shops scattered about Spring Street.

"Our bread was made using the water from the two springs which ran constantly into a large sink which were situated by the side of the road.

"It was a very small hamlet then, everyone knew each other. Thank you, Mr Bill, for sending in the photograph."

● Have you got any old photographs of Harlow which may stir the memories of Star readers? If so, send them to Nostalgia, Harlow Star, 6 West Gate, Harlow, Essex CM20 1JW. All photographs will be returned. Alternatively, email them to daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

HERE at the Star we can be inundated with pictures and photographs from yesteryear and at times it can seem a little like trawling through the old family albums during a visit to an aged relative.

Some of the pictures we are sent are just that - family snapshots - but others can be particularly compelling to anyone interested in the development of the town.

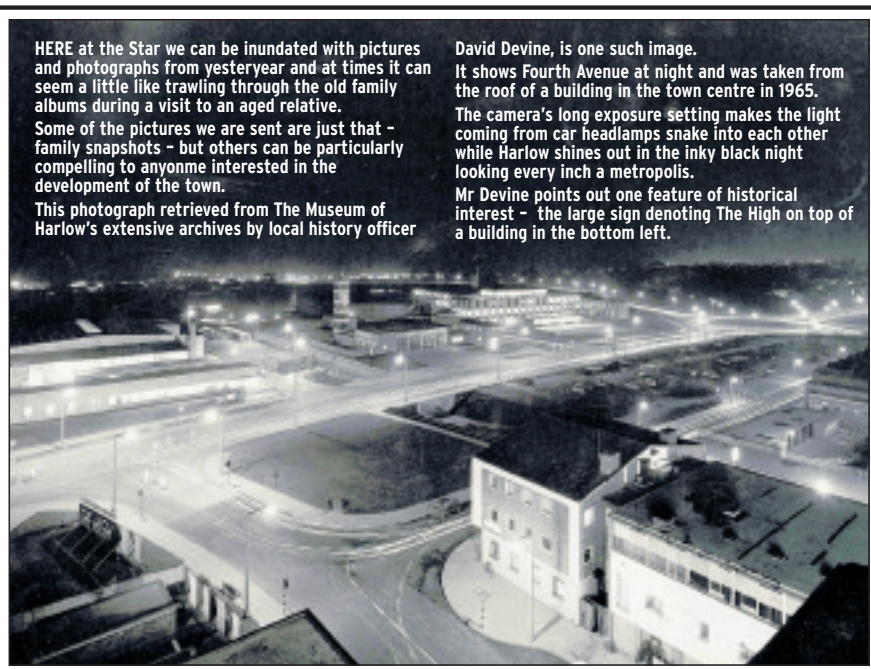

This photograph retrieved from The Museum of Harlow's extensive archives by local history officer

David Devine, is one such image.

It shows Fourth Avenue at night and was taken from the roof of a building in the town centre in 1965.

The camera's long exposure setting makes the light coming from car headlamps snake into each other while Harlow shines out in the inky black night looking every inch a metropolis.

Mr Devine points out one feature of historical interest - the large sign denoting The High on top of a building in the bottom left.

Chef fined for assaulting kebab shop staff

A HARLOW-born chef who returned to the town to visit his brother landed himself in hot water after punching two kebab shop workers in a dispute over £2.

Bradley Walford (23), of West Kensington, pleaded guilty at Chelmsford Crown Court to charges of assault and using threatening behaviour. He was fined £1,000 and ordered to pay £1,200 costs and £200 compensation.

The court heard Walford and his brother had visited the Tasty Grill in East Gate on April 19 last year where they became involved in an argument over a bill for takeaway food.

Gareth Hughes, prosecuting, said there appeared to have been a dispute about whether the food was purchased or bartered for a lesser sum.

The brothers left the premises and headed towards Harlow Town station but were confronted by two members of staff from the eatery.

The defendant became concerned for his brother's safety when they grabbed him. He lashed out and punched both men in the face.

Katie Spears, representing Walford, said in mitigation that, after playing pool and drinking some lager, they had gone to the kebab shop and his brother was due to pay £8 cash or £10 by debit card.

As they made their way to Harlow station they were approached by two men in a vehicle.

"His brother's arm was grabbed by one and my client was feeling quite scared and worried for his brother," said Ms Spears. "At the beginning he had no idea the two gentlemen came from the restaurant."

Passing sentence, recorder Neil Garnham told the defendant: "You behaved in a totally unacceptable and violent manner."

Proud parents celebrate the arrival of a nappy new year!

NEW Year's Day delivered something altogether more life-changing than the traditional hangover for several families who welcomed new additions to their clans.

One of the first to arrive at Harlow's Princess Alexandra Hospital was Leon Hurley, who was born at 2.31am and weighed 8lb 12oz.

Proud parents Georgia White (25) and Nathan Hurley (24), of Freshwaters, Harlow, were expecting him to make his entrance on Christmas Day but had to wait an extra week. "He made sure I could not have any alcohol," joked Georgia.

Mother and baby returned home to an excited welcome from Leon's 17-month-old sister, Willow Freya. Dad Nathan said: "She can't stop kissing and touching the baby. She has tried to pick him up by his head a few times though!"

Another couple who celebrated the New Year in PAH's maternity unit were Daisy Williams (16) and Ian Cullen (16).

Their daughter Ruby was born three weeks early weighing a healthy 6lb 3oz. "She is a brilliant baby," said Daisy, of Sycamore Field, Harlow.

Leon and Ruby were two of seven babies to be born at PAH on New Year's Day.

A TEENAGER who robbed a man at knifepoint before shaking his victim's hand and apologising is being sought by police.

The robber approached his 25-year-old victim near the cycle track at Bush Fair, Harlow, and demanded he hand over all of his cash while threatening him with a five-inch blade.

After taking the man's money, the thug then shook his hand and apologised.

The victim then asked the suspect not to rob any women, to which he replied he would "never do that to a woman".

Details of the robbery, which took place shortly after midday on Tuesday, December 15, were only released this week.

The suspect is described as white, aged 17-18 and of slim build. He spoke with what is described as a local accent and was wearing all black clothing with a hooded top.

PC Daniel Bennington, of Harlow police, said: "He was holding a lock-style knife with a five-inch blade, the middle of which had been removed or was of a different shade, making the blade look like a V shape."

"If anyone knows someone with a knife like this, please contact me."

Anyone with any information about the robbery should contact PC Bennington on 0300 333 4444 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

"I am extremely saddened by the news of this recent death and my deepest sympathies go out to friends and family," he said.

"In the past I have met with both the rail operators and other relevant agencies and I left convinced that they were taking the situation of railway fatalities extremely seriously.

"Since this time I have monitored the situation but, as a result of this recent fatality, I have again contacted these agencies to ensure the necessary measures are in place to prevent and deter further occurrences."

Tories should take the flack

SIR, In the month before Christmas there was a spate of letters from the Conservative scribes on Harlow Council blaming everybody else about the state of things in the town. They never once conceded that responsibility now lies at their door.

They control the purse strings and they make the decisions. They never properly consult so I think it is fair to say they can take the flack if things go wrong.

However, I am still unsure as to what exactly they stand for and which scribe is speaking for which part of the Tory group. As I understand it, there are at least three sections - the leader's inner support group, the far right and the amorphous mass in the middle. Hence the confusing messages sent to the Star by the various Tory councillors.

Perhaps I can reflect on the reality of the situation so that the residents of Harlow will appreciate what has already happened and what could happen in the new year.

Wheelie bins forced on the town without any proper consultation, car park charges, the demise of the advice centre at a time of need, political dogma over housing rents and their potential support from Government are already a reality.

Residents should be aware of what might happen when the council fixes council tax from April with their allies on Tory-controlled Essex County Council.

Do they know, for example, that once vital and successful services are being quietly altered and only allowed to continue if they pay for themselves? For example, the Outdoor Education Centre, where hundreds of youngsters have had tremendous fun and enjoyment in all types of activities, has now been honed back into a somewhat exclusive climbing club.

Essex County Council can't manage its services economically if it has to tender all its services to IBM at 20 per cent less than they currently spend. Will we get a 20 per cent reduction in our contribution to ECC? The fee to IBM will also include monies to pay shareholders.

What is the point, therefore, of having a county council at all? What say the elected members? The chairman of Essex County Council, Lord Hanningfield, should perhaps concentrate on this problem and relieve himself of all his other national roles and related expenses. What do we pay our council tax for? What nightmare scenario is being planned for the town now? Please, Harlow Tories, stop making excuses and blaming everybody else. Tell us your plans.

Harlow should be dismantled

SIR, I want to initiate a mass exodus of Harlow before it becomes a massive financial drain on the country, if it hasn't already. My reasons are as follows:

- The academic results of our state schools are woeful
- The town is too far (and too expensive for the low waged) from London to be reasonably commutable
- The town consists almost entirely of large, featureless estates. Almost every street looks identical; the same type of housing is on every street wherever you go
- There are no obvious landmarks in the town. Believe me, the water tower at Church Langley is not a natural landmark.

Shopmobility move will curtail town centre trips

SIR, Through the Star I would like to find out which bright spark decided to move the Shopmobility office.

Sadly, although Shopmobility has been relocated into a permanent building, it is in completely the wrong position within the town.

I have been told the land that once housed the office is to be sold off and so soon there will be no parking close enough to the building to render the service as useful as it has been over the years to those of us with restricted mobility.

The only way I will be able to use the facility is by trying to struggle to find somewhere to park in the post office car park and then go over to Shopmobility in my wheelchair. That would involve crossing a dangerous and uneven road, leaving my wheelchair in the office and, once I have finished my shopping, going back to the car to deposit it, drive back to the Shopmobility office and then take myself back to my car in my wheelchair, again crossing the dangerous road.

● The high rates of crime and unemployment rate and low wages (for those who do work in the town) is a symptom of the town's failure.

Having come from Belfast to live in Harlow and having also lived in London, I am in a position to compare these places.

In Belfast it made me happy to see the lovely large Cavehill mountain loom over the city. It gave me a sense of where I was in the city. I could look up and know where I was in relation to home. In Harlow you can be in any street and it all looks the same. You could spend an hour walking in one direction and it looks like you haven't moved. Harlow, really is a mentally disorientating place which doesn't help the wellbeing of its residents.

There is a political loyalism to the town which borders on the irrational, rather like the loyalists in Northern Ireland. It is as if the residents know it is a terrible place to live but insist on not talking about it in the hope that this will somehow make living there more bearable. Just like ignoring the elephant in the room.

It is the responsibility of elected politicians to be open to discussion about the truth of Harlow. Have you ever wondered why Harlow has such a bad reputation? Well, look no further. The reasons are above.

It doesn't help having a council which constantly defends the town to outsiders and its residents and issues constant pro-Harlow propaganda. What else can the employees of Harlow Council do? That is what they are paid for! So don't look to Harlow Council or its councillors for answers.

National government should fund the dismantling of Harlow. It should also give these people housing back in London. This town isn't working.

Why should any national government give any money to Harlow or to Essex County Council for Harlow's continuing existence? Why should national government fund any road building or other major scheme when other areas in England need money more desperately?

Moss Side, south London and numerous towns in the north as well as my home town of Belfast are far more worthy of government money than Harlow is.

Why would anybody be proud of Harlow? Answers on a postcard please.

Aran Black
Address supplied - Editor

A more costly alternative will be to take a taxi and be dropped off outside the office.

Today, with taxis dropping off customers blocking the road and the dropped kerbs - albeit only for a few minutes each trip - it was total chaos. There were cars trying to pass, people trying to cross the road, cars trying to drive out of the car park. If this continues I am certain there will be an accident.

What was wrong with the old site?

It had parking and was easily accessible to all who needed it.

Sadly, I will not be able to use the service as much as I used to and that is a real shame because I am rarely able to go out. My rare trips to the town centre for shopping were something I used to look forward to and, to be honest, I now feel robbed of that privilege.

My father-in-law, Sid Steadman, would be turning in his grave at the thought of what is happening to the service that he enthusiastically and lovingly set up all those years ago.

Jennifer Steadman
Watlington Road, Old Harlow

Address the real priorities

SIR, It may or may not be true that the Earth is warming but if it is then it is undoubtedly a natural phenomenon which is part of the planet's environmental cycle and the very least of our worries.

What all governments of the world should be worrying about is over population. This country has too many mouths to feed, too many on the dole and they all want somewhere to live. Harlow, a relatively small town, has a housing waiting list of 3,000.

Since 1971 when I moved here to work in a new factory (now closed) and when there was no housing waiting list, the town has gobbled up farmland and green space for new housing. It is, I would estimate, around a third bigger than in 1971 and every year since the housing waiting list has got longer, mainly due to immigration.

In 1971 there weren't any east Europeans, few if any Africans, Muslims or Asians and just the odd West Indian. Now the town is like a mini League of Nations.

It would seem that successive governments have decided that we will take in anybody who wants to come and house them. Does this continue until there are houses and flats built over every piece of green space?

How are we to feed ourselves if every morsel of food has to be imported because there is no land to grow food? How are we going to pay for the food if mass unemployment is the norm?

And what do our politicians do? Waste time and vast sums of money talking about global warming.

As a pensioner I have had the best of what the UK has to offer but I despair for the future of our young, who can only look forward to menial, poorly paid jobs and having to work till they drop as there will be little in the way of a pension.

So to Messrs Brown, Cameron and Clegg I say, forget global warming and do something about the state of this country's economy, housing and employment. They are the real priorities.

Sign up for a Money Skills session with Barclays

WOULD you like a Barclays Money Skills session for a group of young people?

The Star has been working with Barclays offering financial advice on a range of topics.

If you know a local school or community group that would benefit from a money management session simply complete our online application form at www.harlowstar.co.uk.

We will select three winners who will then each receive a Barclays Money Skills session for their group, which will be delivered by Barclays volunteers.

Barclays Money Skills helps people to develop their confidence and ability to manage money, which includes budgeting, making informed financial choices and knowing where to get help.

In addition to donations to charities, Barclays employees are encouraged to volunteer with local community groups to lend first hand impartial advice on the importance of understanding and managing money.

The volunteers use a range of fun and interactive activities to help young people to become more financially capable.

Tina banks £17½k in Noel's TV game

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertssexnews.co.uk

TELEVISION game show contestant Tina Smith banished the winter blues after scooping a cool £17,500 on the hit Channel 4 programme Deal or No Deal.

Tina (38), of Church Leys, Harlow, bagged the cash during her third week on the popular game show hosted by Noel Edmonds.

She was among 300 people selected to take part from more than 100,000 applicants nationwide. This number was narrowed down to 50 who were then asked to talk about themselves in front of a video camera.

Tina, who describes herself as "Harlow born and bred, bubbly and very outgoing", made it through to the final 22 contestants.

In the show, one contestant pits their wits against the banker in a game of chance by eliminating cash prizes ranging from 1p to £250,000 which are contained in sealed boxes.

CASH BOX: Tina Smith, who won £17,500 on the popular television game show Deal or No Deal hosted by Noel Edmonds, right

Although not previously a fan of the show, she believes she was picked because of her larger-than-life personality.

"It was the chance of a lifetime," she said this week. "I would say to anyone go on it. It's a great experience which you will never get anywhere else."

"And Noel is brilliant. He brought the Essex woman out of me and did nothing but take the pee out of me!"

"When I was first on the show I was very nervous and kept making mistakes but by the end of it I was dancing – boogieing away – in front of the cameras. It was fantastic."

Since her win, which was filmed back in October but only televised earlier this week, Tina has splashed out on a holiday to Fuerteventura in the Canary Islands, paid off debts to her bank and bought a 50-inch television.

She was also able to buy a new van for her fiancé, carpenter Matthew Brady (39), after his broke down.

The couple are set to tie the knot later this year.

Tina, a former care worker, could have left the TV studios an even richer lady. If she had accepted an offer to switch two of the boxes she would have walked away with the top prize.

Rivals clash over OAPs winter fuel bills

HARLOW MP Bill Rammell and his Conservative rival Robert Halfon have locked horns over winter fuel allowances for pensioners.

The war of words was sparked by Mr Rammell's claim that Harlow pensioners would always be better off under Labour, pointing out that 17,520 residents over the age of 60 are benefiting from the this year's winter fuel allowance.

Eligible households receive between £125-£400 to help meet increased heating costs during the cold snap.

Mr Rammell said the payments form part of a support package the Government has provided for pensioners since 1997, which also includes pension credits, free concessionary bus travel and free eye tests.

"Looking after those on pensions is one of the most important jobs of any Government," he said. "I am proud that under Labour we have supported our pensioners in Harlow."

"The truth is that with Labour, older people in Harlow are £1,500 better off on average than they would have been under the Conservatives."

But Mr Halfon dismissed Mr

Rammell's claims as "scaremongering" and claimed the Conservatives had a comprehensive plan to eradicate fuel poverty.

"The next Conservative Government will re-link the state pension to earnings and we have made clear that we will keep the winter fuel allowance that is valued by so many in Harlow."

"Government figures show that fuel poverty is up 64 per cent on what it was in 2007. Pensioners and other families are more vulnerable to high fuel bills during this cold snap than they have been for years."

"Conservatives have a comprehensive plan to reduce fuel poverty. It is time for action, not gestures."

This week, as we start a new year and a new decade, we take a look back at some of the stories that made the news in the Star over the past 12 months.

January

Harlow Council braced itself for financial chaos after it was revealed its budget deficit could reach millions of pounds. The Conservative administration was rocked by the news that £22.5m would have to be found to pay back money the previous administration had borrowed to fund capital projects until 2012/13.

The Star revealed that senior council officers were set to receive salary rises of up to £10,000 per year despite the potential multi-million pound cash crisis.

Up to 25 rescue dogs were faced with being put to sleep when the couple caring for them found themselves in desperate financial trouble. Gill and Lee Craddock, who had been running Pat's Legacy Sanctuary since 2001, faced losing everything after their mortgage lender served them with an eviction notice.

February

Snow brought out the best and worst in residents during one chilly week which saw 45 incidents of anti-social behaviour. While most people celebrated the weather with sledging and building snowmen, gangs of youths were reported to have thrown snowballs laced with stones at vehicles.

Farm staff helped a flock of sheep to safety after the River Stort burst its banks and flooded fields surrounding Harlow. The rescue operation was mounted after sheep, grazing on the flood plain adjacent to the A414, became stranded as waters continued to rise.

Councillors gave the go-ahead for supermarket chain Aldi to build a store near The Stow, despite local traders' anger. After a battle lasting nearly three years, the decision to redevelop a former car showroom was given the green light.

March

A disabled pensioner was stabbed to death in the early hours of the morning outside her flat in Hadley Grange, Harlow. The body of Jennifer Macaree (62), also known as Jennifer North, was found in her car. A 26-year-old Harlow man accused of her murder is due to stand trial later this year.

Harlow Council's decision to slash funding for the town's Welfare Rights and Advice service was challenged in the High Court.

Controversial plans to introduce parking charges at Harlow's neighbourhood shopping centres were pushed through despite angry protests. Traders, residents and shop workers packed the Civic Centre to plead with members of the committee to abandon its plans to introduce the pay-and display meters.

April

The Government announced a £14m upgrade of Harlow's roads and railways. Plans were revealed for a £9.9m project to widen a stretch of the busy A414 linking the M11 to Southern Way roundabout, which itself would be scrapped in favour of traffic signals. A further £3.58m was allocated to improved public transport links.

Thieves who targeted the Rainbow Centre in Wych Elm, Harlow, stole thousands of pounds worth of computer equipment from nine charities.

The trial begins of two young teenagers accused of starting a blaze in Harlow which claimed the life of 24-year-old Kerry Youngs and left her boyfriend Kevin Chapple with permanent brain damage.

A man returning from a Mexican holiday became the latest in a string of suspected swine flu cases. He was treated at Princess Alexandra Hospital after it was feared he might have contracted the virus but was given the all-clear.

May

Pressure mounted on Harlow MP Bill Rammell to publish details of his expense claims in the wake of the scandal that rocked Parliament. The Star revealed Mr Rammell claimed a total of £114,220 between 2001 and 2008, including mortgage and maintenance costs on a second home.

2009: Another year has bin and gone!

One subject that dominated the headlines and provoked more letters from Star readers than any other during the year was the introduction of wheellie bins for household waste collection. Harlow Council came in for a barrage of criticism as the programme was rolled out across the town and in November there was even more anger when it was revealed the authority was throwing a thank-you party for staff who were involved in the implementation of the scheme.

September

A lucky pensioner beat the odds by winning a whopping £64,000 on the horses. Staff at the Harlow town centre branch of Joe Jennings were speechless after the 83-year-old pocketed his winnings.

Campaigners fighting to prevent thousands of homes being built on open countryside bordering Harlow vowed to fight on despite the failure of a legal challenge to the proposals. After a three-day hearing at the High Court, a judge upheld the legality of the Harlow North blueprint.

June

Former Conservative councillor David Kirton was jailed for eight years and banned from working with children for life after admitting he sexually assaulted a girl of 13.

The two teenagers accused of murdering Kerry Youngs were cleared after the trial collapsed. The prosecution decided to drop the case against the pair after a key witness said she could not recall what had taken place on the night of the blaze.

The Star revealed that police and hospital authorities were carrying out separate investigations into claims that two diamond rings were stolen from the body of a pensioner who had died at Princess Alexandra Hospital.

More than 1,600 people took part in St Clare Hospice's Midnight Walk, raising more than £150,000. The event was supported by the Star.

July

Initial design plans to transform Harlow into a shoppers' paradise were unveiled. Planning applications for the proposals, which could create up to 4,000 jobs, are expected to be submitted to Harlow Council in the summer of this year.

A homeless couple lost all their possessions after jobs set fire to the tent they had been living in. But their faith in human nature was restored after generous Star readers donated money and gifts to make their life a little easier.

Harlow Town Football Club's future was left hanging by a thread after it emerged Inland Revenue filed a petition of debts worth £42,000.

A woman accused of trying to kill her husband, who suffers from Motor Neurone Disease, by suffocating him was cleared of attempted murder.

August

Residents rallied around in a true demonstration of community spirit following a massive blaze at the Berecroft estate which completely destroyed two homes, left four uninhabitable and six with smoke damage. It was later revealed that the fire had been started deliberately.

A depraved father was jailed for life for raping his daughter and fathering her two children.

The expenses scandal switched from the House of Commons to the council chamber in Harlow when it was revealed councillors had claimed nearly £200,000. Council leader Andrew Johnson topped the list with £11,619, including £248.34 for mobile phone calls.

Shock figures showed that Harlow has seen one of the worst unemployment rises in the East of England during the recession.

Local schools once again smashed Government-set GCSE targets of at least 30 per cent of pupils achieving five or more A*-Cs including English and maths.

Princess Alexandra Hospital reported that no cases of the deadly MRSA virus had been recorded during a period of more 200 days, making the hospital one of only a handful in the country to have remained infection-free.

October

Preparatory work began on the £10m project to widen the stretch of the A414 between Church Langley and the M11 roundabout, one of Harlow's busiest roads, as part of a £9.9 million scheme.

Controversial car park charges caused a flurry of complaints amongst residents and traders after they were forced to pay up to £6 a day to park outside their own home or workplace.

November

Funding was finalised for a new £9.3m university campus for the town. Work will start on the Anglia Ruskin campus this summer, with the first students due to enrol in 2011.

Thousands of residents showed their respect for the British Forces when they gathered for the annual Service of Remembrance to pay tribute the fallen in both past and present conflicts.

There was disappointment all round after it was announced that the opening of the new state-of-the-art Leisurezone complex would be delayed for another three months. It is now due to open in February.

December

Harlow College had something to shout about after its journalism centre was voted as of the top-performing in the country. The college's one-year journalism course was voted in the top six in the UK.

Heavy snowfall brought the town to a standstill, causing chaos for drivers and commuters with trains delayed for up to 45 minutes.

It was a Santa-stic effort by more than 200 hundred people who dressed up as Father Christmas to take part in St Clare Hospice's first ever Star-supported Santa Run in the Town Park.

Radio's 40th celebration

HARLOW Hospital Radio celebrated its 40th anniversary with a special concert.

The event held at Matching Tye Village Hall started kicked with a presentation to the station by June Snowden, president of the Hospital Broadcasting Association.

Among the guests were the Lord Lieutenant of Essex, Harlow MP Bill Rammell, Harlow Council chairman Edna Stevens and Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust chairman Gerald Coteman.

Singing group The Entertainers performed a selection of show songs and carols.

Jane Bryson, chairman of the station's anniversary committee, said: "The concert was a great way to start both the station's 40th celebrations and the Christmas season."

Foster carers appeal

A CAMPAIGN to find more people willing and able to foster vulnerable children has been launched by Essex County Council.

There are currently more than 1,300 children in care in Essex and around 900 are in foster placements. With just 650 homes currently providing foster care, it is estimated that another 100 placements are required to provide a foster family for each child.

Deputy county leader Peter Martin said it was desperately short of foster carers. "It can be a daunting prospect caring for someone else's child but it is a role carried out each day by ordinary people who have simply decided to use their everyday skills to do something amazing," he said.

To find out more about becoming a foster carer, call 0800 801 530 or visit www.essex.gov.uk/fostering.

Pick up your TV prize

THE lucky winner of a flat screen TV given away by Harlow's market traders in a Christmas Eve draw has yet to claim their prize.

The winning ticket is orange, number 43 and the code number AN4G 9E4R. The winner can claim their prize by taking the ticket to draw organiser Michael Hemmings at the Refreshment Bar in Market Square.

PAH backs organ donors campaign

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

HOSPITAL chiefs in Harlow are supporting a national campaign to highlight the importance of organ donation.

Of the 10,000 people currently needing a transplant in the UK, more than 1,000 will die within a year while still on the waiting list.

As part of a drive to promote organ donation, the Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust has appointed Dr Peter Bishop as its clinical lead for organ donation.

A designated committee has also been established to ensure that, in the future, organ donation becomes a usual part of NHS practice.

Dr Bishop said: "One donor can save or transform up to nine lives. This can offer great comfort to the donor's family during a difficult time of loss.

"Eighty four per cent of people would be willing to donate an organ after their death but only 27 per cent of people are currently on the donor register. We need to turn people's good intentions about organ donation into action by encouraging more people to register."

For details on how to become an organ donor, visit the website at www.organdonation.nhs.uk or call 0300 1232323.

TV star Vernon is a big hit with Mandy

TELEVISION presenter and Radio One DJ Vernon Kay was on hand to congratulate a slimming group manager from Harlow at an awards ceremony.

The host of Family Fortunes described Mandy Knapp, who manages Slimming World groups in the town, as inspirational at the event which celebrates the achievements of the country's most successful slimmers.

Mandy said: "Meeting Vernon was a wonderful way to end what's been a fabulous year.

"I'm sure there are thousands of people out there making New Year Resolutions and pledging to lose weight.

"I want them to know that they can lose weight while still filling up with proper food like pasta, rice, potatoes, fruit and veg, fish, poultry and lean meat so there's no need to ever go hungry."

Vernon said: "I've met a lot of inspirational people during my career and Mandy is just that – inspirational."

HAIR loss, fatigue, scarring, muscle weakness – the physical effects of cancer can be endless. But the emotional scars can run as deep and are just as difficult to heal.

A new support centre run by the Helen Rollason Cancer Charity is helping to treat such emotional turmoil. Offering a range of complementary therapies to soothe both body and mind, the centre, based at the Rivers Hospital in High Wych, is a haven.

A cancer diagnosis can lead to a range of conflicting emotions. Often patients continue to have worries long after their treatment has finished, while for others, feelings about their illness can surface months or years later.

On top of the physical symptoms and side effects of treatment there is a kaleidoscope of feelings to contend with, from anger, fear and despair to anxiety and uncertainty.

The centre, which was officially launched by BBC sports presenter Clare Balding last month, is the third opened by the Helen Rollason charity. A fourth is due to open at Chelmsford's Broomfield Hospital soon.

The organisation is committed to caring for the overall wellbeing of cancer sufferers and providing better emotional support to people with all types of the disease, whether newly diagnosed or after treatment. Its services are free.

The charity was founded in memory of BBC Sport presenter Helen Rollason, who died of colon cancer 10 years ago. Her vision was for cancer patients to be treated holistically.

She had said: "Good quality of life while coping with cancer is the most important gift a sick person can receive – it should be available to everyone."

Helping to heal the emotional side-effects of cancer

ELEANOR PATMORE finds out how a new centre near Harlow gives cancer patients time off from the rigours of battling the disease

The centre's manager Lorna Ellis, a qualified nurse, said: "Cancer is such a difficult diagnosis and it affects the whole family.

"What we provide is a safe space where people can come to and be themselves. They don't have to put on a front or a brave face or edit how they're feeling.

"It's often such a relief to come somewhere that is non-clinical and relaxed where they can get one-to-one care. Our aim is to enhance their quality of life and help them deal with an extremely stressful situation.

"I've seen over the last eight years how valuable that can be. It makes such a difference to their lives and this new centre means we can reach even more people."

Since opening on November 9, demand for the centre's services has been overwhelming. It offers a range of therapies, including manual lymph drainage, a specialist massage treatment rarely available on the NHS which can help fight infection and recovery from illness. It hopes to be able to offer counselling in the near future.

Another complementary therapy is reflexology, an ancient technique based on the principle that parts of the feet correspond to every part of the body. Applying pressure to different zones can help rebalance and align the body.

Therapist Rachael Hart said: "A lot of people don't realise this type of therapy is available and how much it can help with what they are going through. Most have never considered it before. You can get a lot of side effects from cancer treatment and we are trying to alleviate them.

"Relaxation is very important and so is taking time out from and having a bit of 'me time'. It's a holistic approach; we care for the mind, body and soul."

Patients can be referred to the centre by their doctor or consultant or pop in to make an appointment. Family members are also welcome.

Rachael said: "The emotional side of cancer can be exhausting but here people get some time to themselves. The benefits can't be underestimated."

One patient already benefiting is breast cancer survivor Carolyn Devonshire, who lives in Allens Green. The 62-year-old was diagnosed in May last year and is awaiting reconstructive surgery following a mastectomy.

She had her first aromatherapy treatment at the centre in the week it opened and last Wednesday returned for another session.

"It's a really wonderful place," she said. "This is a completely new thing for me and it's great to have it right on my doorstep.

"It's lovely to be able to lie back and let all the stress and tension go. It's such a horrible thing for anyone to go through so it's really nice to have some time out, even if it's just for an hour."

Emergency? When do the sales start?

YOU probably know that the emergency telephone number 999 should only ever be used for just that - an emergency.

But, unbelievably, one woman rang the number to complain about her pet cat which was playing with a piece of string!

She told police that her feline friend was "doing her head in" and claimed it was an emergency as it had been going on for over two hours.

It was just one of thousands of calls made by people who abused the 999 system over the Christmas period.

Between Christmas Eve and Boxing Day, police in Manchester received 1,377 calls to the emergency number but only a few turned out to be genuine emergencies.

One caller rang to ask what day the sales were starting while another wanted to know the date.

The police have released information about the calls to remind people to only use the 999 number in an emergency.

Superintendent Karan Lee, said: "Silly pranks can have a major impact on members of the public who need the police."

"I don't want a person to call 999 and be delayed because someone else is calling to report something that is not an emergency or, worse still, a deliberate joke."

So remember, the 999 service must only be used in the case of an emergency.

PAUL STEPHEN PUGH

In loving memory of our precious Son. Taken so tragically January 9th 1985. To have known Paul was to love him. What more is there to say. Except we still remember. That very tragic day. When the lord in all his mercy. Took Paul in his arms to rest. And whispered very softly. "I only take the best". A very special Son and a Truly devoted friend. "Simply the Best" Love you forever, Mum x Dad xxx

ROCHE. Phyllis. 12th January 2006. Remembering a dear Mum and Grandmother on her 4th anniversary. We miss you from your fireside chair, your loving smile and gentle air, your vacant place no one can fill, we miss you Mum and always will. God Bless. RIP. Love Jacqui. Tony, Caroline, Kevin, Steve, Pat and grandchildren.

GEORGE WATSON

12.1.2009

Always in our hearts.

Sister Grace, Brothers, John and Ron and families.

Acknowledgements

HOWARD. Ernie (copier). Mrs F.A. Howard and family would like to thank all friends and relatives for their sympathy and beautiful floral tributes received in their recent sad loss. Also, thanks to Michael Pincock.

WICKERSHAM Lisa and Nigel, parents of Jordan Wickersham who died so tragically on 2nd December 2009, would like to thank the Emergency Services and Police for all their efforts. They would also like to thank all of Jordan's friends who attended the funeral and those who donated to The Fifteen Foundation. A final thank you goes to Oscar Smith and Allan Elliott for their brave efforts, God bless you all.

Congratulations

Move it to lose it at Della's popular aerobic dance classes

DELLA Doyle's aerobic dance classes have been established in Harlow for more than 10 years and are great fun for all.

They have been enjoyed by locals of all ages, particularly for keeping up general fitness, body toning, weight loss and creating a feeling of well being.

The workouts are easy-going and mainly freestyle, incorporating basic dance movements and will suit beginners as well as those with exercise experience.

Della invites new people to come and sample an hour or two each week of fun-loving sessions along with friends and 'upbeat' music. If you've enjoyed the festive period a little too much, then now's the time to give Della a call.

As Della says: "Come and work off those Christmas excesses - you've got to move it to lose it!"

Give Della a call now on 07773 606523 to book your £1 introductory class for January 11 or 13 only.

Belly Belles for a fun way to lose those extra pounds

WHY not join Belly Belles Egyptian Dance Group this year and help lose those extra pounds put on over Christmas by learning this wonderful ancient dance.

Classes are held in Harlow, Much Hadham, Ware and Bishop's Stortford.

You'll find it is an excellent way to tone muscles in the stomach, buttocks, arms and legs, basically giving you the body you deserve!

This, of course, can only be achieved by practicing at home and attending regular classes.

The benefits of the dance are vast. It is a brilliant stress reliever as well as a huge confidence booster. Some of the lyrical moves actually help alleviate the pain of stomach ache during labour!

The best thing about this dance is that it is great fun and suitable for women of all ages and sizes.

Call Samirah, a qualified exercise to music instructor, on 07904 198309.

Harnessing the power of the mind with hypnosis

HYPNOSIS is an excellent, drug-free vehicle which uses a natural state of mind – the trance state which is experienced by most people many times a day.

Using this state in a focussed way, it is possible to harness powerful mental faculties to help with a wide range of conditions including anxiety, depression, weight-control, IBS and pain as well as the more commonly known areas of smoking and phobias.

It is usually characterised by an extremely pleasant state of deep relaxation which in itself is very beneficial. Hypnosis is called a "brief therapy" because benefits can result very rapidly typically after one to three sessions.

Glynis Cheers has been practising hypnosis and other brief therapies, as well as cognitive behaviour therapy, professionally for over 10 years. She studied with the London College of Clinical Hypnosis and is a member of the British Society of Clinical Hypnotists. For further details call Glynis Cheers on (01279) 812165.

Premiere Dance helping to make dreams come true

DANCING dreams came true recently for Ware-based Premiere Dance student Abigail Chapman. Having auditioned at The Centre – a prestigious performing arts college in London – Abigail (18) was offered a place on a three-year course to become a professional dancer.

Since she started learning ballet, tap and modern dance with Alison Burkert and her teaching team, she has passed all her dancing and drama exams with top marks and has often performed on stage, including Premiere's charity show with special guest Sharon Osborne. "We are delighted to have been involved in Abigail's journey to realise her dreams; that's what we offer our students at Premiere. However it has taken a lot of hard work and dedication on her part to achieve such high standards and we are very proud of her." Class details can be found online at www.premieredance.co.uk

Slimming World can help you look forward to a year full of excitement and expectation

HAPPY new year to all Slimming World members, new and old, from Lesley, Donna & Ian.

Don't worry if you've over-indulged during the holiday season – remember you are only human! But Slimming World might have the answers you are looking for with Food Optimising Plans, where you can pile your plate high with delicious free foods.

There are bags to choose from and you can enjoy every meal without guilt or deprivation and still have room for the treats we all love! You can bin the calculator and discover the real amazing you – for good!

Now in its 41st year, Slimming World has always been the most advanced slimming organisation offering a sophisticated blend of flexible 'food optimising' eating plans with warm and friendly group support that helps individuals to choose the best weight loss solution that fits with their lifestyle.

To celebrate in style, there is a brand new eating plan designed to give slimmers the best possible start to their weight loss campaign in those early weeks of a brand new year. The 'Extra Easy' Plan is waiting for you to give it a try – could it be the one for you?

There are also some wonderful recipe books in class, along with the number one best-selling slimming magazine full of ideas and motivational stories that will help you along your Slimming World journey to your final target. What could be easier than eating yourself slim?

Slimming World has some fabulous incentives for all members in 2010. Why not go along and join one of the friendly groups and see what is on offer – everyone is guaranteed a warm welcome.

Slimming World is looking ahead to 2010 with excitement and expectation. Are you?

Get rid of build-up of toxic waste with Tao Hydrotherapy

WITH each new year begins a new set of resolves, most of which fall by the wayside before the month is out!

Many of us carry around pounds of toxic waste that has built up over years, not just at Christmas.

A colonic treatment not only removes this compacted waste (sometimes up to 20 pounds), resulting in weight loss, it also gives you clearer skin, increases your energy levels and kick starts your digestive system.

Tao Hydrotherapy, based at The Maltings in Hoe Lane, Ware, is one of five clinics in the UK to use the Angel of Water system – a pure body detoxification without the need for you to go on a detox programme.

To kick-start January Tao Hydrotherapy is offering two treatments for the price of one, a saving of £75. To make a booking simply call Victoria on 01920 487483 or email victoria@taohydrotherapy.com.

Have you booked up a last-minute winter getaway?

If you are travelling to far flung destinations like Gambia, or maybe a safari in Kenya, you will need to make sure you have the right travel vaccinations and bite avoidance items such as insect repellents and a mosquito net.

Don't forget, you will be very near the equator where the sun is very strong so a high factor sunscreen is also a must.

It's wise to travel with a medical kit, especially long haul. The best travel kits contain first aid, medicines for day-to-day travel ailments and a sterile needle kit. It's also important to take a plentiful supply of any prescription medicines you may be taking.

For further travel health information, pick up a free copy of the comprehensive travel health booklet from the new Nomad Travel Clinic at 12 Potter Street, Bishop's Stortford.

Four-bedroom detached in Church Langley cul-de-sac

welcome

Homes

for all lifestyles

THIS four-bedroom detached house in Albert Gardens is located at the top of Kiln Lane and within walking distance of the local primary school.

The current owners have recently upgraded and redecorated the property internally to a high quality and extravagant design.

The property is situated in a small cul-de-sac, is not overlooked from the front and has the benefit of a garage with additional parking for at least two vehicles and a larger-than-average rear garden.

Accommodation comprises an entrance hall, cloakroom, lounge (15'6 x 11'4), dining room (10'5 x 7'9), kitchen (10'5 x 7'9) and utility room (6'11 x 5').

The master bedroom (16'5 x 9') benefits from an en suite shower room. There are a further three bedrooms (11'5 x 8', 10'6 x 5'7, 9' x 7') and a family bathroom (5'8 x 5'7).

OLD HARLOW OFFICE AND WEBSITE

We are pleased to celebrate the opening of our Old Harlow office. We are delighted to be located within the centre of Old Harlow amongst Solicitors, Surveyors, Accountants and other Estate & Letting Agents.

We have also just launched our new website which has been simplified to optimize the speed which properties are searched for. Every property has at least 8 photographs by clicking on the individual photographs the image balloons to 6' x 5' - a really decent viewing size!

We have been established in Harlow since 1987. For many years we were Town Centre based and over the last 22 years we have sold 1000's of properties and our database shows that many of our clients have moved to either Old Harlow, Church Langley, Newhall or the surrounding villages. We are now perfectly located to assist them all once more.

Having weathered the property recessions in 1990 and 2008/9 we are extremely excited about the future of the Harlow town housing market and should anybody be contemplating a move in the near future please call us for a free valuation.

Our enthusiasm and experience will not be matched. We promise to be straight talking, competitive and will try our utmost to make the whole moving process far less stressful.

Centurion - Inspired by the past with a great team for the future

Due to the success of the Sapphire approach to selling homes in Harlow, we have decided to launch an office dedicated to Church Langley. At Sapphire we understand buyer behaviour and we know that buyers will tend to look online for properties as to looking in the high street, so rather than have expensive flashy premises; we invest our money in the marketing of your property online - that's what's most important.

Because our overheads are far lower than other high street estate agents, we can afford to offer lower commission fees. Once the promotional period is over properties can be sold for only 0.7%!

- No contracts to sign, No sole agency agreements, No tie ins.
- Only 0.7% to sell your property
- Unlimited marketing on Rightmove & other internet portals
- H.I.P.S. only £186 + VAT

what's on at The Square

TONIGHT: Giving their all on this week's Incoming bill of fresh new bands are Hold Your Horse Is, Scholars, There Were Bears and The Form. Doors open at 8pm and admission is £4.

FRIDAY: Dip into the pomade and prop up your pomp – it's a rootin', tootin' Rockabilly double-header tonight featuring none other than legendary Klub Foot stompers and hallowed Harlovians The Pharaohs, pictured above. Support comes from another local mob, The Cobras, pictured below. The gig starts at 8pm and tickets cost £7 on the door.

SUNDAY: It's a new year and so it must be time for the annual New Year Quiz. Doors open at 8pm and admission is free.

what's on at The Playhouse

PANTOMIME: The panto season may be coming to an end but there are still tickets available for the final few performances of Cinderella. Starring celebrities Janet Dickenson (2.4 Children) and The Hitchhiker's Guide To The Galaxy, Ben Hanson (Tracey Beaker) and Rob McVeigh (Any Dream Will Do finalist), this is hilarious and heartwarming family fun and a surefire way to banish those winter blues! Performances run at 2.30pm and 7.30pm daily until Sunday, with tickets priced between £10 and £16.50. Call the box office on (01279) 431945 for details.

David draws on comic potential

By CHRIS MOSS
 chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A JUDGEMENTAL gambler, a claustrophobic Doctor Who fan and a snake-wielding prankster. Perhaps not members of your average church congregation, but in the surreal comic-book world of Riverdale they are all perfectly at home in the pews.

The fictional town may not sound as though it has much in common with Harlow, but according to the man who created the community for his debut comic book – local writer David C Hill – the devil is in the detail.

Having invested a good six months of his life in writing, designing and publishing Glory Be!, the 35-year-old regular churchgoer and Simpsons fanatic hopes his offbeat graphic magazine will challenge a few misconceptions of worshippers and their diverse roles in the community.

"I wanted to quash some of the stereotypes people have about churchgoers," he told the Star. "Many people seem to view us almost with suspicion or discount us as dowdy and boring, but hopefully Glory Be! will prove that we can have a sense of humour!

"All of the characters in the comic book were influenced in some way by people I've met at church or in the community. I've just magnified certain characteristics to exploit their comic potential."

Pitched somewhere between the childish mischief of Beano and the distinctly adult humour of Viz, David's 84-page debut features quickfire cartoons, mirthful missives and a series of hilarious e-mail messages sent between the book's colourful characters.

But despite the storyline being rooted in religion, David is quick to point out that readers need not be believers themselves to enjoy the humour.

"The fact that most of the action is set in a church shouldn't stop someone who never prays or doesn't consider themselves a Christian from enjoying the book," he explained. "It's more to do with the reader's sense of humour."

"It's not littered with profanities like certain other adult comics, but I would still consider the humour to be more on an adult's wavelength, similar to something like The Simpsons or The Far Side."

● Glory Be! is currently on sale in 3 Darths Comics & Collectables in the Harvey Centre, priced £3.99. For more information on the comic, log on to the website at www.glorybemagazine.com.

Book festival boasts line-up of best-selling authors and poets

BOOKWORMS rejoice – the full line-up for this year's Essex Book Festival has been revealed and will see a veritable library's worth of literary talent visit the county throughout March.

With an impressive array of award-winning writers signed up to appear at venues across the county, organisers at Essex County Council are expecting events to sell out fast and are advising people to book early to avoid disappointment.

Included on this year's bill are bestselling authors Margaret Drabble, Rose Tremain, Alexander McCall Smith, Barbara Erskine and David Nobbs, former Labour spin doctor Alistair Campbell, BBC news presenter George Alagiah, journalist

Francis Wheen, and poets Andrew Motion and Martin Newell.

Harlow will host three events during the festival, starting on March 6 with Comic Creators, a workshop where aspiring illustrators and writers can try their hand at creating their very own comic books.

Critically acclaimed author Margaret Drabble will then draw upon her deep knowledge of literature in a thought-provoking talk A Writer's Britain at St John's Arts & Recreation Centre in Old Harlow on March 26, while the following day sees members of the award-winning Harlow Writers' Workshop present a selection of their readings in Reflections: Poetry and Prose at The Gibberd Gallery.

County councillor David Finch, cabinet member for adults, health and community wellbeing, said: "The line-up for this year's spectacular festival, now in its 11th year, is one of the best yet and features a number of well-known writers as well as new and up-and-coming authors, both nationally and internationally."

"Last year the first event sold out in a few days so we are encouraging people to book early to avoid missing out on their favourite authors."

For more information on the festival, for which the Star is an official media partner, log on to www.essexbookfestival.org.uk.

TRAINEE ACCOUNTS ASSISTANT
Bishop's Stortford office
Full-time, 37.5 hours p/w

Price Bailey is a top 40 firm of Chartered Accountants with offices in the City of London, East Anglia and Guernsey. Our central finance department is integral to our business and we are currently looking for a trainee to join our busy but friendly team.

You will be qualified to A2 level (or equivalent), computer literate and keen to progress a career within accountancy. Your initial duties will include purchase ledger processing and undertaking supplier payments, but we would expect you to develop the role further as you progress.

We will provide funding for your AAT studies via regular release to college and, should you wish to pursue it, we would also support you through your chartered accountancy exams following successful completion of the AAT.

You will be able to communicate confidently with colleagues and suppliers; and have a flexible and professional attitude.

If you are interested in this vacancy, please forward your CV and covering letter by Friday 15th January to:

Public Notices

Essex County Council

(Piercing Hill, Theydon Bois) (Temporary Prohibition of Traffic) Order 2010

Notice is hereby given that the Essex County Council intends, not less than seven days from the date of this notice, to make the above Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

Effect of the order: To temporarily close Piercing Hill, Theydon Bois, from the southern junction of the service road with the main carriageway of Piercing Hill, north, for a distance of approximately 90 metres.

The closure is scheduled to commence on 18 January 2010 for 5 days, weather permitting, or where appropriate signs are showing, and is required for the safety of the public and workforce while Balfour Beatty install a new water service connection on behalf of Veolia Water.

The alternative route will be via the main carriageway of Piercing Hill.
Access for emergency service vehicles and pedestrians will be maintained at all times during the closures.

The Order will come into effect on 18 January 2010 and may continue in force for 18 months or until the works have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Dated: 7 January 2010.
Yim Kong, Assistant Director for Highways, County Hall, Chelmsford.

Essex County Council

Passmores School

Essex County Council is intending to sell the Passmores School site.

Brand new purpose built premises are being provided on the nearby former Brays Grove School site. Once the new premises are complete, the current Passmores School site will be redundant.

In order for the sale to proceed, the consent of the Secretary of State for Education and Skills is required under Section 77 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 to dispose of the playing fields.

A plan of the Passmores School site is available for public inspection at County Hall, Chelmsford CM1 1LD between Monday to Saturday 9:00am to 5:00pm and at Harlow Public Library Monday to Friday between 9:00am and 7:00pm, Saturday 9:00am to 5:00pm and Sunday 1:00pm to 4:00pm until Friday 26 March 2010.

Should you have any comments in relation to the proposed disposal of land at the Passmores School site, they should be submitted in writing by Friday 26 March 2010 to Becky Allum, Senior Officer: Land, Property & Furniture, Capital Programme & Building Development, Room C412, P. O. Box 11, Chelmsford CM1 1LX.

Judo ace Plumb can pick up British spot in qualifying

HARLOW Judo player Ronnie Plumb will be aiming to maintain his number one ranking when he competes in Great Britain judo trials.

The 18-year-old from Nicholls Field is ranked number one in the U-20 men's 100kg-plus category this weekend.

He will be competing at English Institute of Sports in Sheffield.

Plumb, who is studying a national diploma in sports at Harlow College, said: "I am training well and I'm very fit. I'm looking forward to it but there is a lot of pressure being number one and holding onto that position."

The top four players in each weight category will gain a place in the GB squad for the European and World Championships being held later this year.

The 2012 Olympics in London may be too soon for Plumb. "Heavyweights don't tend to peak until 28 so these games may be early for me. The 2016 Olympics is more likely for me."

GB hope's Faith in World Champs

Judo

FAITH Pitman is confident she can retain her number one ranking when she competes in the Great Britain judo trials for the senior squad this weekend.

The 24-year-old, of Hookfield, Harlow, will be competing in the U-63kg women's category at Sheffield.

Pitman told Star Sport: "I competed in Japan [at the Tokyo Grand Slam] before Christmas. I was part of a [Great Britain] team that came second."

"I normally train at Dartford [British Judo Performance Institute]. This centre has been closed over the Christmas period but I have trained well [elsewhere].

TARGET: Faith Pitman (S)

"There are maybe two trainers for eight players at Dartford but I have benefited from one-to-one training with my coach [Thomas Cousins]."

She added: "Thomas knows me down to a tee and has worked every day with me whereas normally I work with him for two sessions a week."

Pitman has kept herself in trim over Christmas and feels confident of challenging for the gold medal at the English Institute of Sports in Sheffield.

"For just after Christmas I feel quite good mentally and physically," she said.

The top four in each weight category qualify for a team spot in the Great Britain squad.

This party will compete in the World Championships this year at the historic home of judo, Japan. This will take place in Tokyo from September 9-13.

The squad will also take part in the European Judo Championships in Vienna, Austria, in April.

Judo players traditionally reach their prime in their late 20s and Pitman is entering a key stage of her career just 18 months after narrowly missing out on the Great Britain team for the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China.

She said: "There are championships this year and next year and then the Olympics. This is always a big motivation and will be even more so in 2012 as it is in London."

Thomas Cousins, the twin brother of Great Britain star Peter Cousins – who did compete at the Beijing Olympics – believes Pitman can qualify for the GB squad.

He said: "She is in good condition and I am confident she will do well although she will face a tough challenge from Sarah Clark who has been a European Champion at this weight. She [Pitman] is in good form."

Peter, meanwhile, is out for up to nine months after undergoing a knee operation.

Raith ace set to sign for Hawks

It is not known how the injury occurred.

The Harlow boss is looking forward to the challenges posed by Heybridge Swifts at home this Saturday and VCD Athletic away on Tuesday, as Hawks look to climb off the bottom of the Ryman division one north table.

Samuel also plans to try out a new formation his side have been working on in training.

"Heybridge are a decent side and play some football but I am more interested in us and if we play to the best of our ability we can do well," he said.

"I played against VCD Athletic when I played for Wingate and Finchley at the start of the season and they are a physical side and they are a side full of confidence."

He added: "I am going to be playing 4-3-2-1. We do not have players who can play on either side of the midfield but we do have lots of wingers and this will play to our strengths."

The Wizard can bank on Barclay

Barclay's support will mean the stadium's logo will be shown on Whitlock's shirt and he is set to make four appearances at the Harlow track in the next year.

The stadium, which hosts three dog meetings a week, also holds darts competitions and Barclay hopes to attract top players to compete at the venue.

Harlow Greyhound Stadium manager Chris Page said it had already benefited from the relationship. "As a result of Simon finishing runner-up, the media interest has been intense, so much so that The Racing Channel in Sydney, Australia, rang for an interview about greyhound racing at Harlow and our connection with Simon Whitlock," he said.

Bold in the cold

A SNOW-bound cross country course failed to deter a trio of Harlow athletes who produced excellent performances in the Essex League at Abbey Fields, Colchester.

Jamie Rushworth (11), representing Harlow Running Club, excelled with another fine performance in placing 24th from the 48 starters in the U-13 boys race (3.3km). His time was 14 minutes and 19 seconds.

Ben Patterson (11), a Mark Hall School student and representing Orion Harriers, was just three places back in 14:40.

Harlow Running Club member Isobel Moss (14) placed 26th in the U-15 girls race.

Having endured a cold over Christmas, the Passmores School youngster made a cautious start but finished strongly in the second half of the race.

Isobel ran the 3.9km distance in 18:04.

Victory is relegation lifeline for super Rams

Harlow 20,
Enfield Ignatians 10

RFU London & SE, div two north east

By DAVID RIMMER

david.rimmer@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

THE Rams' battle against the drop was boosted as they defeated a weakened Enfield Ignatians side at home.

It was Harlow's first win in five league matches and saw them rise three places in the table up to 8th spot.

Rams skipper Scott Romaine said: "Enfield are close to us so it was a four-pointer. It's a massive boost for us and should help our confidence."

"If we can put a few wins together, we can finish in mid-table."

Saturday's match was played on Ash Tree Fields as the main pitch at Harlow was too hard.

Harlow fell behind on six minutes when a rolling maul from Ignatians saw Dan Hutchings touch down an unconverted try.

The Rams were sluggish and could have gone further behind midway through the first period but Enfield's Jack Wilson's kick missed a penalty opportunity. However, just before the break a good blindside move ended with the alert Kane Claridge setting up Will Grimley to skip over for an unconverted try in the corner, making it 5-5.

A resurgent Harlow went ahead on 48 minutes. Two phases from a scrum resulted in Paul Eynon

TOUCH DOWN: Will Grimley scores Harlow's second try at Ash Tree Fields last Saturday. The game was switched from the Rams' home further up Elizabeth Way due to the heavy frost (HSP0619551) driving forward before neatly passing to Terry Blackwell, whose well-timed angled run earned him an unconverted try. Shortly after, Ignatians substitute Jordan Wilson just missed a 35m penalty.

Harlow went 15-5 ahead on 61 minutes. Lee Harron, returning from a month out with a rib injury, played a key part in the build-up, before Francis Brown passed through for Grimley to dart over from close range for an unconverted try. Eynon then latched onto a loose ball to score Rams' fourth try and wrap up Harlow's scoring on 68 minutes.

The hosts' focus then slipped and Ignatians' Robin Ward scored a try on 80 minutes. The conversion, like the previous five, was missed.

The Rams face Saffron Walden away this Saturday.

HARLOW: Brown, Grimley, L. Bowering, McFerran, Mackie, Dobson, Harron, Williams (Branch 76), Romaine, Prindville, Blackwell, Eynon (Palmer 68), Roberts (Clark 78), M. Bowering, Claridge.

● A minute's silence was held before the game for the late Upper Clapton RFC secretary Dave Miller who died on December 28.

The 56-year-old, who went to school at Mark Hall in Harlow, battled against bowel cancer.

Raith ace set to sign

MARVIN Samuel hopes to sign former Raith Rovers midfielder Ryan Maxwell to boost his Harlow Town FC squad.

Maxwell played for the Scottish team, whose most famous supporter is Prime Minister Gordon Brown, a few seasons back after a spell at Bishop's Stortford in 2005-06.

He also played for Hamilton Academicals in Scotland. His non-League CV includes spells at Boreham Wood and Stansted.

Samuel said: "He has trained with Chesham recently and I played with him at Boreham Wood. He has pedigree, experience and is a good ball player."

"Ryan is more of a holding midfielder than an attacking midfielder."

On his search for a left-back, Samuel said: "I have cover in Joe Clemo and Elliott Green but I need a natural left-footed player and I have spoken to two players who might be interested."

Meanwhile, central midfielder Jordan Lambert has been ruled out for at least three weeks after breaking an arm over the Christmas period.

Samuel said: "He rang me from hospital to say he had broken an arm and he got an infection but he is now out of hospital."

The Wizard can bank on Barclay!

Dog track owner is world darts finalist sponsor

By DAVID RIMMER
david.rimmer@hertsessexnews.co.uk

WORLD Darts
Championship finalist Simon 'The Wizard' Whitlock praised Harlow Greyhound Stadium owner Dave Barclay for the confidence shown in him after the Australian beat some of the game's greatest players to reach his first PDC final.

The softly spoken 40-year-old Australian, received a five-figure sum from Barclay and could be seen wearing a shirt bearing the logo of the Pinnacles track throughout the tournament shown live on Sky Sports.

Whitlock went on to gain £100,000 prize money after finishing runner-up at Alexandra Palace in North London on Sunday evening.

Whitlock, who lost 7-3 in the final to 15-times PDC Champion Phil 'The Power' Taylor, told Star Sport: "The sponsorship gave me the confidence and without that help things might have turned out differently. What has happened has changed my life."

The Aussie was 2-1 up at one stage against Taylor, and then fell 3-2 behind.

He said: "It was right up to the end of the sixth set. I had a chance to win the sixth set but missed it. You cannot afford to play a bad shot against Taylor. I did really well when I beat Raymond van

WIZARD OF DOGS: Simon 'The Wizard' Whitlock with benefactor and Harlow Greyhound Stadium owner Dave Barclay (HSP0619306). Below, Whitlock's shirt bears the Harlow Greyhound Stadium logo on it. He wore this for the final against Phil 'The Power' Taylor (HSP0619312)

Barneveld in the semis."

Whitlock also beat Englishman James Wade – the partner of Sky Sports' Soccer AM presenter Helen Chamberlain – in the quarter-final on his way to the final.

He had impressed Barclay when he played darts at the Harlow stadium last year.

Barclay's attention was further drawn last Wednesday when Whitlock played excellently to reach the last eight.

Whitlock, an 80-1 rank outsider before the tournament, appealed for financial backing after that match.

The Harlow owner got in touch with the relevant people and it was subsequently announced on Sky Sports that the Greyhound track was now his chief sponsor.

Barclay, who bought the Roydon Road stadium in 2005, said: "He came across as a really kind bloke when he came here. He signed pictures for people and impressed me."

"He played really well [at Alexandra Palace] and when I heard he needed backing between £15,000 and £20,000, I thought I would have some of that."

He added: "I think he can do really well and get into the top four."
